

And God Replied

Vasco Figuera

It is evident that god made some stronghold decisions apart from his hardwork of how to manage the atomic structure in design of the world. However the question raisers are not as efficient with atomic structure and asking different questions. So, let's go into few of the questions that were asked to god. On this very day Shorya has already died and become 762's father the sardaar... he became child in ramayan's raavan claimer though in reality bharmal and his mother actual raavan child. Not ready to delve into the luxurious lives they were leading, we get even worse roles than this so no need to worry about them.....it's clear that when gouri / maasad etc will become child the situations would be much worse than these.
